If you need a break, but are tired of the normal bland hotel chains, then why not spend a night or more at the tranquil and historic setting of Skellefteå's Stiftsgården. Close to the bustling town of Skellefteå with its high-tech industry, university life and good shopping, lies the peaceful situated Stiftsgården. Located by the beautiful river, Stiftsgården consist of a fully functioning conference centre, but we are also eager to welcome individuals and families who want the comfort of a hotel that's just that little bit different.

And comfort is the key word. All our hotel rooms (30 in total) are on-suite with television and telephone in all rooms, 22 are double rooms and 8 single. We also offer hostel accommodation, where the rooms have shared WC, showers etc. There are 8 double rooms and 6 single.

Whether you are looking for complete relaxation or an activities filled break, Stiftsgården is the perfect setting for you. The area surrounding Stiftsgården is rich in cultural history, but if you are more interested in sport, the river offers unique salmon fishing possibilities and during the winter you can brush up you skiing skills, with both Down-Hill and Cross-Country skiing available within easy distance of the Centre.

Food is an important element of any stay at a hotel, and we at Stiftsgården take our cooking very seriously indeed. From a healthy and appetising breakfast to a full three course evening meal with wine or everything in between is available to our guests.

There is only so much that can be described with mere words, the best way to understand how good Stiftsgården is, is to experience it for yourself!
